

July 2022

Square Set Metals Recruiting, LLC

Employment Trends In The Market

U.S. Job Market Was Stronger Than Expected in June

Growing by 372,000 Jobs

Healthcare and social assistance saw the biggest jump
adding nearly 78,000 jobs

Professional and business services followed closely with a gain of 74,000 jobs

Bureau of Labor Statistics, JOLTS Report July 8, 2022

Unemployment rate remained unchanged
at 3.6%

Historic highs still remain with 1.9 job openings per every available worker

JOB SEEKERS SAY THE MARKET IS STRONG 24% ARE TAKING ACTION TO FIND NEW ROLES

Job seekers continue to seek new employment with a net 41% viewing the current employment market as strong or very strong

The top factors when considering a new position included:

Higher pay, better benefits: 67%

Job security, stability: 40%

Flexible work environment, work from home/remote work option: 39%

Better work-life balance, personal well-being: 36%

Career growth, advancement opportunities: 32%

SIA, July 13, 2022